Re: 06-4228, Nazaruk v. eBay, Inc.
Dist/Ag docket: 2:06-CV-242-DAK

Dear Appellant:

We have enclosed an Entry of Appearance form. Attorneys for parties must complete and file the form within 10 days from the date of this letter. Pro se parties must complete and file the form within 40 days from the date of this letter. See 10th Cir. R. 46.1. Appellant's failure to enter an appearance may cause the appeal to be dismissed. An appellee who fails to enter an appearance may not receive notice or service of orders.

The district clerk will transmit, to the court of appeals as the record on appeal, copies of all documents filed in the district court except those excluded by 10th Cir. R. 10.3(E).

Appellant shall file an opening brief within 40 days of the date of this letter. Failure to file a brief is ground for dismissal without further notice. Motions for extension of time are not favored and, absent extraordinary circumstances, will not be granted.

Appellant may use the enclosed form or may file a separate brief. If appellant elects not to use the form, appellant's brief must comply with the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure and Tenth Circuit Rules. Failure to file a brief is grounds for dismissal without further notice.

Please contact this office if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Elisabeth A. Shumaker
